Bell Tower Theater Announces Family Series Event, Noodle Doodle Box

Dubuque, IA–The Bell Tower Theater, your hometown theater, is pleased to announce the first show of the second-annual Family Series, a series offering high quality family entertainment at an affordable price. On Saturday, March 27, 2010 at 2 pm the Great Midwestern Educational Theatre Company will present Noodle Doodle Box.

In Noodle Doodle Box Zacharias and Pepper are completely opposite clowns. Pepper is short, messy and loud, where Zacharias is tall, neat and clean. As the clowns argue about whose box is better, kids learn why it is important to be respectful to others, and learn to share.

The Great Midwestern Educational Theatre Company (GMETC) has become a leader in creative learning in the tri-states, through innovative, quality performing arts programs and projects. They were the recipient of the 2006 Outstanding New Children's Theatre Company award by the American Alliance for Theatre and Education. GMETC produces theatrical projects, storytelling performances, classes and camps with the special focus of creating exciting and meaningful learning experiences that inspire students to connect with literature and appreciate how the arts can help them become the best people they can be.

The Bell Tower Theater is conveniently located in Fountain Park at 2728 Asbury Road in the city's vibrant West End just minutes from both Highway 20 and the Northwest Arterial. Noodle Doodle Box will be presented for one performance only, Saturday, March 27, 2010 at 2 pm. Tickets are just $8. Tickets for Noodle Doodle Box and all of the Family Series events are on sale now, and can be purchased by phone at 563-588-3377, online at www.belltowertheater.net or in person at the Bell Tower Theater box office, Monday through Friday 11 am to 6 pm or Saturday 12 noon to 5 pm.
